Hawaii Pictured

We call attention to our new line—Island views. We have half a thousand different glimpses of Hawaii, its people, public buildings, street scenes, public events of note, in fact every thing interesting for the past quarter of a century. You can obtain these pictures no where else. Some of the plates from which these photos are taken are very valuable, as the people or historic scenes are now gone.

Pictures at popular prices are what the public want. Here is where we meet your wants. A 4x5 photo, printed on non-fading paper, at 10c. each. By the dozen $1. Then we have larger ones, 5x7, at 25c. By the dozen $2.50.
These are not amateur photos but work of the best professionals. We would invite you to call and look them over.

If you are wanting anything in the photo line come and see us. We have some new goods sure to please. We have the popular Poco cameras and the wonderful little Snappa plate camera. We like to show them. May we have the opportunity?

Our developing and printing custom-a reason for it—good, careful work that pleases.

PRATT'S REPORT ON FIRE CLAIMS BILL

On May 15th, I was granted, through the courtesy of members of the Senate Committee, and the kindly yielding of the gentlemen presenting the Hawaiian Ditch matter, of a portion of their time, to offer a statement concerning the fire claims losses in suppressing the plague.

On May 15th, I called upon President Roosevelt and gave him a copy of your Joint Resolutions, with a letter reciting the reasons why Hawaii was entitled to the assistance asked for.
The President seemed to be very much interested in the matter and expressed a willingness to assist the Territory in any way that he could.

The hearings were begun on May 15th, it was thought that the Senate Committee would be able to make a report in time to amend the Sundry Civil Bill, which was then under consideration.

Delegate Wilcox was present at all of the hearings of the Senate Committee, and expressed himself as being in full sympathy with the manner in which the measure was being considered and conducted, promising to do all he could with the members of the House to induce them to assist him when the Deficiency Bill, with its amendment, should be reported to that body.

Senator Foraker, being engaged on May 15th, in making a speech upon the Philippine bill in the Senate, the committee did not again convene until May 19th. Following this meeting, and when it was thought the Committee would take definite action a question arose as to the amount of the fees paid to local attorneys in Honolulu for their services in the presentation of the claims before the Fire Claims Commission, it having been reported to the Committee that some of the attorneys were to use the expression, "making all kinds of money" out of Japanese and Chinese claims as contingent fees.

The effect of this report was counteracted only by persistent personal effort on the part of your representative, and of friends, to show that every precaution had been taken by the Commission to avoid all puffing of claims or fraudulent practices by attorneys, or of any one engaged in presents claims to the Commission.

The result, however, was the withholding by the Committee of its report until the members should be better informed upon the subject; and upon the suggestion of the Chairman of the Committee, that I furnish all data available on this point, I obtained information from the Chinese and Japanese Legations, through the kindness of Mr. D. W. Stevens, and others, of the amounts of fees the attorneys were to receive from Chinese and Japanese claimants for their services, which appeared to the Committee to be very reasonable, and covering as they did about four-fifths of all the claims presented to the Fire Claims Commission, proved acceptable to the Committee, and this objection was cleared up.

On June 16th, the Committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico unanimously and favorably reported a bill for the relief of Hawaii to be offered as an amendment to House Bill No. 15-108, being the Deficiency Bill, together with report thereon which for your information is offered as an exhibit.

Senator Hale, as Chairman of the subcommittee on appropriations, stated that it was impossible for his committee to report favorably, or otherwise, on the recommendation of the Committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico, for the relief of Hawaii, until the matter in controversy over the Army and Naval bill was settled, and even then he might not be able to do so, as objections were made by some members of the committee as to the relief being not properly a deficiency matter.

In view of this, it was thought desirable that an original bill be prepared which was done on June 19th, and offered by Senator Foraker to the Senate, asking for relief for the Territory of Hawaii upon substantially the same terms and conditions as in the Senate amendment.

This original bill was at once referred to the Committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico and held by that committee awaiting the result of the actions of Congress upon the bill as offered as an amendment.

The House refused to concur as to certain Senate amendments to the Deficiency bill, and asked for a conference on the matters of disagreement. Messrs.
Cannon of Illinois, Barney of Wisconsin and Livingston of Georgia, being appointed as conferees from the House, and Senators Hale, Allison and Teller as conferees to the part of the Senate.
It was then undertaken on the part of all friends of the measure that the critical point had arrived, and all possible effort was made by those interested to induce the House members, more especially the conferees, to allow the amendment to stand and the appropriation for the relief of Hawaii to go through.

It is needless for me to dwell in detail upon the results, with which you are familiar. However, the fact that the amendment carried an appropriation of $1,600,000 was felt to be of so much importance as to require more careful consideration on the part of the members of the House.

As soon as it was learned that the House had refused to concur in the Senate amendment, Senator Foraker, as chairman of the Committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico, on July 1 reported favorably to the Senate, original Senate Bill No. 4216, introduced by him on June 19th, accompanied by favorable report No. 2125, which bill is now on the Senate calendar.

Shortly before leaving Washington, and after the House had refused to concur in the Senate amendment, I called upon Senator Foraker, and asked him to kindly give me his opinion, for your information, as to the probable chances of Congress, granting relief to the Territory of Hawaii, and what course of action, if any, should be taken in the further prosecution of the matter before Congress at its next session in December.

Senator Foraker stated he was exceedingly sorry that Congress should have failed to pass the bill at this session, but that its action should not be construed by any means as final, as the appropriation was a very important one which needed very careful consideration and attention; that very probably the Senate would pass the bill now on its calendar in the early days of the December session, when it would go to the House and probably be referred to the Committee on Territories for its consideration.

It was Senator Foraker's opinion that every effort should be put forth on the part of the Territory, and its business organizations, to supply the fullest information upon the subject, which, if done, he believed that Congress would, upon the merits of the case, grant the appropriation asked for.

Since my return to Hawaii, I have received from Mr. Mondell a letter under date of July 3rd, in which he says, "I had a talk with Mr. Knox, chairman of the committee on Territories of the House, and he seems to think that his committee would be inclined to view your proposition favorably as an independent measure."

As regards the matter of the Cable resolution, I beg to state, that, acting upon the advice of responsible parties in California, and in Washington, who were personally familiar with all the conditions respecting the cable proposition, the presentation of the same was withheld by your representative.

SPECIAL TERM.

The three judges of the First Circuit Court this morning signed and filed an order calling a special term of the court to begin September 15. The order was approved by Justice Perry, as required by law. In the absence of the chief justice, the Supreme Court will probably have decided the question as to bailiffs' salaries by the time the term begins, and there may be some funds available. The term will probably be devoted to jury-waived cases. Judge Robinson, whose bailiff is the Supreme Court bailiff, will preside, so that there will be little expense.

AFTER A WARRANT.

Judge Ester this morning issued a temporary injunction restraining Auditor Austin from issuing a warrant for one J. Suva, on account of money owing to T. Fujitani, bankrupt, resulting from a writ of mandamus was filed by Thayer & Hemenway in behalf of Thayer as trustee for the bankrupt, directing the Auditor to issue a warrant to Thayer.

Fujitani was adjudged a bankrupt last December. He had had $470 due him for work done for the Hamakua Road Board. Thayer alleges that the Road Board refused to turn the summer over to him, and in spite of the fact that they knew of Fujitani's bankruptcy, sent the voucher to Suva for Fujitani.
Austin is also said to have refused to issue a warrant to the trustee for the bankrupt, and to be about to issue one for Suva. The court is asked to compel the Auditor to turn over the money to the trustee for the benefit of creditors. Judge Ester set the matter for hearing next Monday.

be played every Saturday. Tomorrow afternoon the H. A. C.'s will play the first game against the Kamehamehas, followed by the Punahou against the Customs. Representatives from all league clubs were present.

cept when Cunha will take his place as ant Newton from that office was read and accepted with regret.
